

STUDY THE PAINTING. LOOK CLOSELY AT THE DETAILS.

Imagine yourself in the scene. Feel the emotions.

Prayerfully consider:

The cross is one of the thrones of Jesus, the one true God and the King of the Universe.

Jesus' cross is an unusual throne for an unusual king. The cross on which Jesus was nailed to for our salvation is a throne of marvelous, incredible Love.

Jesus saves His kingdom, us, in an unexpected way. Jesus does not appear in this world as traditional royalty with riches, a massive army, and servants. He does not rule with force and fear. That is what people of this world expected.

Jesus did the unexpected! He ruled with love. He came as a sacrifice. He died so we might live. Jesus' death shatters our eternal death and sets us free.

Talk to Jesus about this. Will you choose to live in an unexpected way? Will you live a life ruled by Love and Faith in a way that those in this world might find unusual?

Listen: Is Jesus telling you anything?
