Artwork Release Form for 2024 Interactive Eucharistic Miracle Display

I hereby certify that this artwork was completely made by the student indicated below. I understand that a select number of artworks will be displayed, and my artwork may or may not be displayed. I understand that every effort will be made to notify me by email if my artwork will be displayed at the 2024 Interactive Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit. Submission of the artwork constitutes full permission for the Eucharistic Miracle Exhibition to display, photograph and publish the work in print and digital non-profit promotional and educational materials related to the 2024 Interactive Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit, future Interactive Eucharistic Miracle exhibits, and on the Guided Children's Adoration website. I waive all claims for any compensation and/or damages and do not hold liable the above-named parties, and/or individuals who work for these organizations, for any such use of the above-described artwork. This is a non-insured loan of artwork to be returned to the St. William Parish office after the exhibit and retrieved by the artist by February 21, 2024. Catholic School submissions will be returned to the Diocesan School Office.

I have read and understand this agreement.
